

Biography

Technical Sergeant Kimberly Miller
Noncommissioned Officer in Charge,
Freedom Winds

---

Technical Sergeant Kimberly T. Miller performs on clarinet with the Concert Band and Ceremonial Band of the USAF Band of Mid-America. She is also the Noncommissioned Officer in Charge of the Freedom Winds Woodwind Quintet.

Sergeant Miller received her Bachelor's degree in Music Education from Western Kentucky University and a Master of Music degree in clarinet performance from Arizona State University.

Sergeant Miller entered the Air Force in May 1998. Prior to joining the Band of Mid-America, Sergeant Miller served with the USAF Heartland of America Band, Offutt Air Force Base, NE where she worked as Publicity desktop publisher/graphic designer; operations representative/tour director for the Concert Band, Ceremonial Band, operations clerk and now her current job as a finance representative.

During her time at Offutt, Sergeant Miller was named Airman of the Quarter, fourth quarter of 2001, Distinguished Graduate and Academic Achievement Award recipient at the Airmen Leadership School.

Sergeant Miller's military decorations include the Air Force Commendation Medal with three oak leaf clusters, and the Air Force Organizational Excellence Award with two oak leaf clusters